

Quality-Environment Policy Statement from General Management

Founded 40 years ago, airmotec is a French family-owned SME specializing in the design, manufacture and sale of analytical solutions. Our unique know-how, combining innovation, local production and continuous improvement, has enabled us to establish ourselves in niche markets with high added value, in France and abroad. Our unwavering commitment to quality, reliability and customer satisfaction guides every step of our development.

Our commitments

1. An optimized production site - In 2025, we have grouped our teams on a modern site, allowing us to internalize more know-how, increase our production capacity, improve the quality of our instruments, reduce delivery times and promote the development of our employees' skills thanks to high-performance production tools.
2. A demanding Quality/Environmental Management System - The management is committed to applying a system that complies with regulatory requirements, in collaboration with the Head of the Analytical Department, guaranteeing its implementation and continuous improvement.
3. International Certifications and Recognitions - Our commitment to quality is evidenced by:
 - EN 14662-3 – QAL1 : Quality and performance of our environmental solutions;
 - ISO 9001 : Certified Quality Management;
 - ATEX/IECEx : Safety for Explosive Environments;
 - CSA : Compliance with North American standards;
 - Recognitions : Selection by the US EPA and other international agencies.
4. The involvement of all our employees - All staff (airmotec, Chromatotec, Chromatotec Inc., Chromatotec Beijing) actively participate in:
 - Drafting and improving procedures;
 - The technological evolution of our products;
 - Compliance with good quality and safety practices.
5. Sustainable development and local roots - Our policy is based on three axes:
 - Economic : Sustaining our activity and creating value locally;
 - Social : To offer a stimulating work environment;
 - Environmental : Minimizing our ecological impact. We favor local suppliers and allocate the necessary resources to maintain our quality system.

Management Commitment - Management reaffirms its commitment to providing the necessary resources to achieve these objectives and to regularly review this policy. We remain attentive to our customers, partners and collaborators to progress together.
